

JOIN THE DIGI TEAM!

DIGI

INFORMATION SECURITY OFFICER

TASKS

- Manage international security projects
- Deploy and control Information Security Policy and Rules
- Implement and follow up of security KPIs for international
- Coordinate and support of local security projects (e.g. ISO27001 certification)
- Effectively collaborate with cross-functional teams to develop and execute project deliverables
- Drive implementation of proof-of-concepts to validate that a solution meets the business and security requirements
- Partner with Security and IT teams to create Security Technical Documentation
- Drive and participate in Security Assessments to measure the effectiveness of security controls
- Perform security incident analysis and recommend remediation steps
- Analyze and remediate security breaches, forensic
- Perform incident investigations, determining the cause of the security incident and preserving evidence for potential legal action
- Initiate escalation procedure to counteract potential threats/vulnerabilities
- Appropriately inform and advise management on incidents and incident prevention

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE

- Bachelor's degree in computer science, mathematics, or engineering preferred; or five years of comparable work experience
- Preferred Certifications: CISA, CISM
- 3-5 years with Information Security standards and risk management frameworks experience
- An understanding of the cyber security risks associated with various technologies and ways to manage them
- The ability to work as part of a team and to build strong relationships with staff and other relevant individuals
- Written communication skills, for example to write technical reports

LOCATION

- Budapest, XIII. district

A fényképes önéletrajzokat az allas2@digih.hu
e-mail címre várjuk.